Rameswara devaru was in the enjoyment of the land many years ago, but when the image was broken the Inam was incorporated with Sircar. Subsequently one Venkatadasappa built the veera Gopalaswamy temple - The then Amildar of the Taluk suggested that the resumed land might be granted to this Temple. This was approved by the Raja, & the Dewan's order quoted in col: 11 issued to the Taluk. In virtue of this order the veera Gopalaswamy's temple has been in the enjoyment of the disputed field for the last 40 years. So I have informed the petitioners that their request cannot be complied with.

Malliah & others of Kyatasandra have presented an Urgee Complaining that the Inam which belonged to the Rameswara devaru, was made over to the Venu Gopala Krishnaswamy's temple on the misrepresentation of the Amildar, and that it therefore might be restored to the former temple.	To be confirmed on the existing Jodi of Rs 2-3-0. The claim set up on behalf of Rameswara devaru, is of course, untenable under the circumstances represented in the previous column. Whatever may be the causes that led to the resumption of the Inam under consideration from Rameswara devaru, it was approved by the highest authorities in the Country, the late Maharaj and the lands conferred as a new grant on the present pagoda and was accordingly entered in the Jari Inam account Since (Initd) B Gopaliah 24-3-70 Spl. Asstt.

the petitioners applied to the Chief of Inam Commissioners on the same subject and obtained endorsements directing them to represent their complaint to the Asstt. who Conducts the Inam Settlement. I examined the accounts etc. connected with the case. Many years ago the inam, under reference, was in the enjoyment of the Rameswara Temple and that when it went to ruin, the Inam was incorporated with the Sircar. In 1829 Amildar Siddaramiah suggested in his urgee to the then Dewan that the land might be granted to the Venu Gopala-Krishna Swamy's temple Constructed by Venkatadasappa. The proposal met with the approval of the Maharaja, and the Nirup quoted in col. II was issued. Thus the inam came into the possession of the temple in col. 15, forty years ago. and it therefore cannot be disturbed I have explained this to the complainant.
